

There is Sweet Music

Music for Remembrance

Saturday 13th November 4.00pm
Holy Trinity Church, Skipton BD23 1NJ

Pinsuti is a group of about 20 performers. We take our name from the little-known Victorian composer Ciro Pinsuti. Sacred and secular unaccompanied music forms the core of our performances, which are individually tailored to each venue, audience and time of year. We perform 4 or 5 concerts each year in the Wharfedale-Airedale area. We rehearse each Wednesday at 8.00pm in the Friend's Meeting House, Ilkley and are currently recruiting for all voices, especially tenors.

The Singers

Soprano	Alto	Tenor	Bass
Rosie Corner	Sarah Evans	Mike Cox	Chris Armitage
Elaine Dave	Kate Graham	Charles Dobson	Mark Cadwallader
Laura Lipscombe	Chris Herbert	Simon Watkins	Duncan Faulkner
Lucy Scriven	Jenny Robinson	Alan Wingfield	Malcolm Jones
Dom Simpson	Kirsty Styles
Nicky Verity
Jennifer Webb

Robert Webb is a conductor and teacher from Leeds. After reading music at Merton College, Oxford, where he was a choral scholar under Peter Phillips (Tallis Scholars) and Ben Nicholas (Reed Rubin Director of Music), Robert moved back to Leeds to train as a music teacher. Robert has conducted numerous choirs across West Yorkshire and as well as being musical director of Pinsuti, is also musical director of Skipton Choral Society. He holds instrumental teaching posts in Horsforth School and Roundhay School in Leeds and is a trumpet and singing teacher at The Grammar School at Leeds.

Contact: info@pinsuti.org

Programme

Edward Elgar (1857-1934):

There is sweet music

Charles Hubert Hastings Parry (1848-1918):

Songs of Farewell:-

1. My soul, there is a country
2. I know my soul hath power
3. Never weatherbeaten sail
4. There is an old belief

Henry Purcell (1659-95):

Hear my prayer, O Lord

Morten Lauridsen (b. 1943):

O nata lux

Thomas Tompkins (1572-1656):

I am the resurrection

I know that my redeemer liveth

I heard a voice

Robert Pearsall (1795-1856):

Lay a garland

Henry Purcell (1659-95):

Thou knowest, Lord

Eric Whitacre (b. 1970):

Sleep

Gustav Holst (1874-1934):

Nunc Dimittis

Gabriel Fauré (1845-1924):

In Paradisum

Forthcoming concert

Christmas Carols - 7.00pm, Saturday 11th December, 2021, St Michael the Archangel Church, Kirkby Malham, BD23 4BS.

Contact: info@pinsuti.org